

POOL COTTAGE, THORNCROSS, BRIGHSTONE, ISLE OF WIGHT. 2017

Pool Cottage is semi-detached thatched 17th century cottage, situated in the small hamlet of Thorncross one mile from the village of Brighstone. It lies in an area of outstanding natural beauty close to the downs and the sea. Modernised without in any way detracting from the original character and charm, the cottage offers quiet comfortable self catering accommodation for five people, with central heating providing a warm cosy ambience at any time of the year.

The large well tended garden mostly laid to lawn with a large patio area, with garden furniture. There is a standing area within the garden for two cars.

Exploring this area by car, bicycle or on foot is a pleasurable experience. There are many pretty villages nearby.

The Isle of Wight Cycle Route passes by the front door and walkers can take the Coastal Footpath, which runs, around the entire Island or walk the many other excellent forest and downland trails.

This area of the Island is famous for stratified cliffs containing many fossils of ammonites and dinosaurs. There are two dinosaur museums, one based at Sandown and the other, Dinosaur Farm, is close by.

The Island has many places of Historical interest. Carisbrooke Castle where King Charles 1st was imprisoned before being sent for trial in London and beheaded. Yarmouth Castle and the Needles Battery which formed part of King Henry V111's coastal defences and Osborne House, Queen Victoria's favourite residence and where she died in 1901.

Besides the wonderful beaches there are so many attractions for children including Robin Hill Country Park and Blackgang Chine.

Arts and Crafts are also in abundance on the Island with many studios and potteries, two examples of which are I.W. Glass and Chessell Pottery, both quite local.

There are many sporting activities available on the Island, which include sailing, windsurfing, swimming, paragliding, golf, riding and fishing.

Day Carp fishing is available at Thorncross Lake our own fishery £10 per angler per day. Angler must have and use barbless hooks, un-hooking mats and large landing nets.

There are several good Pubs in the area where excellent meals may be obtained. The Crown at Shorwell, The Three Bishops in Brighstone and The Sun at Hulverstone. Also the Wight Mouse at Chale and The Eight Bells at Carisbrooke. Newport the main shopping town is seven miles away.

The Cottage is centrally heated by radiators throughout. It is generously equipped for five people. The charges include electricity, wi-fi access, central heating oil, colour co-ordinated bed linen with duvets, bath, hand and tea towels. Please bring your own beach towels.
